

URBAN SYNC cloud

delivers location based -, project specific - and community content from a single source to all kind of apps

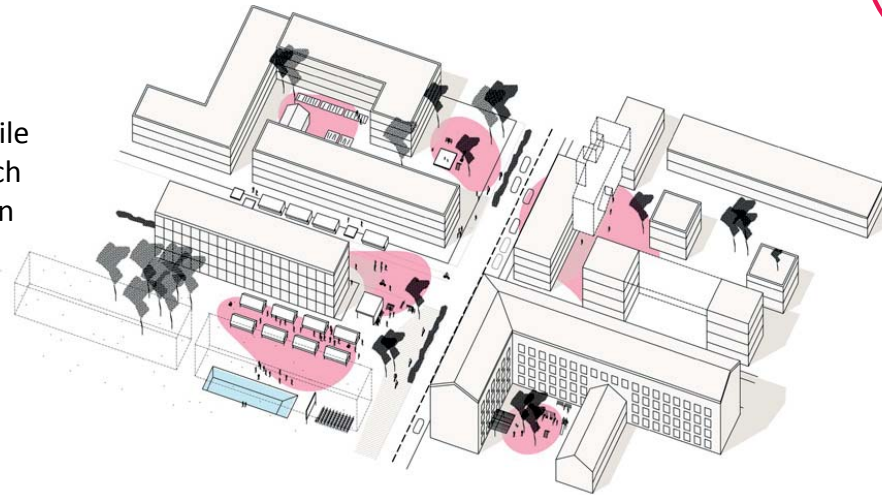

Processes surveys, user generated content, social impacts, etc. to generate valuable reports and urban planning inputs.

App

Backend

provides an online and mobile communication tool to reach all kinds of target groups on any device at any time provides communication and marketing tool for cities or project owners to stay connected with the citizens

Citizens

Community

use the App to communicate with the city and provide their valuable inputs like comments, media, surveys, demographics, etc.

communicates with citizens and performs actions based on survey results and community content

Cities

Projects

Open data

Social

Events

Additional data sources may provide even more data